Local website releases positive survey results for the City of Dunwoody

Dunwoody – July 15, 2009 – The City of Dunwoody is pleased about the release today of survey results by the local web site Dunwoodynow.com. The website conducted a survey of 100 Dunwoody residents over seven days from July 3rd through July 10th 2009. The survey asked questions ranking a variety of current issues including creation of the city, the city council and the police department.

The survey concluded a high satisfaction rate of 82% with the City of Dunwoody as a whole as well as an 82% satisfaction rate with the new City of Dunwoody Police Department.

The survey results in their entirety are available through the Dunwoody Now website www.dunwoodynow.com. For more information regarding the City of Dunwoody, please visit the newly redesigned city website at www.dunwoodyga.gov or contact Edie Damann, Marketing and PR Manager, at 678-382-6700.
